Eleanor was a 12-year-old girl who really wanted a dog. She would do anything to get a dog, but she really wants a Siberian Husky. On Christmas her parents gave her a shocking surprise, it was a baby Siberian Husky! She was over the moon!

Thank you so much mom and dad!" Eleanor said. She ran upstairs with her new dog, and she was searching how to take care of a dog because she never really had the time to search it up, her parents came to said, "You are taking care of her, but if you need help just call us okay?" Eleanor said Okay and started playing with her dog. "You know, I didn't give you a name." Said Eleanor "All names are nice, but I think I would go with... Everest, that is perfect!" Eleanor was the happiest girl alive now. She told all her friends, and they were surprised.

A year passed, and Eleanor and Everest were best friends! One day on a Saturday noon Eleanor and Everest were playing in the backyard, Eleanor was hot and tired she wanted a drink, so she told Everest to stay in the backyard, so she did. Eleanor went inside and got a nice cold drink. After she was done drinking, she went outside to play with Everest, but then she could not find her! "Everest where are you?" She spoke. She looked everywhere in the backyard and realized that the backyard door was open! She told her parents, and they went to go find her. They checked the whole neighborhood, but there was no sign of her. "Everest! Come on let's go home!" Eleanor said. There was nothing, no sound of her. Eleanor was devastated.

Four days have passed and there is still no sign of Everest, they put posters everywhere and nothing came. "This is all my fault! I should have never let her outside when I went to go get a drink!" Said Eleanor. "No, it is not it is okay we are going to find her." Said her mom. A week later their family was going to San Antonio. Once they got there Eleanor Didn't realize there was a surprise for her. When she got into their house her frown was upside down! It was Everest! "Everest! I missed you!" "Bark Bark" Everest said. They were all laughing, but Eleanor couldn't be happier. The parents said, "How did Everest come all the way to San Antonio?" They revealed that they were the owner of Everest but, couldn't keep him because she was breaking the furniture, "But we really did miss him." Said their cousin. Eleanor said, "I guess she remembers where you live." When they got home, they decided to watch a movie and go to sleep, "Everest promise me you would never run away and stay with me forever." Eleanor said. Everest said, "Bark Bark!" She laughed and watched the movie... As a family.
