

The Devastating Prom Romance

By: Alexander J.

Eve is sitting in class writing notes and Adam wondered what she is writing about. Adam's friend Deuce was asking him questions but he didn't answer him because he was dreaming of Eve. Then Mrs. Benson slammed the meter stick on his desk. He yelled out random stuff like "World War 2, Mississippi, and Eve is the most beautiful girl in the world." Eve started to blush but before anyone noticed she stormed out of the room crying because she was embarrassed. Adam was angry and he knew he blew it big time. Adam stormed out of the room looking for Eve. Adam found her in the restroom crying. Jasmine went to look for them and she found them and they looked at each other and Adam said "Tell her I love her and I am very sorry." The next day Adam and Eve bumped into each other and they talked. Adam apologized and tried to ask her to prom but the bell rang and they went to class. Adam wrote a note to Eve but he gave it to Deuce to pass it to her. Eve got the note and yelled out in joy "Yes." Mrs. Benson said "That's correct" Eve looked puzzled. She just played along like she knew what was going on. The next day everyone was dressed up for prom. This little kid was bothering Adam and Adam got tired of it and hit him. The little kid told his brother and his brother got a sniper and shot Adam. Eve swore to have revenge on the person who shot Adam. The next day the little kid was bragging on what his brother did to Adam. Eve got mad and brought a gun to school the next day and shot the big brother three times. On that day a new kid came to school named Jeremy and they both fell in love when they saw each other. As soon as he sat down Eve asked him out and he said "Yes." They were more in love than when they first saw each other because it was Valentine's Day. For their date they went to the French Boyard Buffet. Then they lived happily ever after.
