

The great escape

By Anthony S. and Adrian S.

Put your hands up where I can see them! I want everything in this bag as fast as possible. HURRY, HURRY, HURRY!!! If you don't one of you are going to die (wee yoo wee yoo) Oh no I can hear the police sirens, who called the police? (BANG)!! I told you one of you would die I didn't want to do that. danget their getting closer. Robert gets in his pick-up truck and takes off. He takes a small trail into the woods, he drives for 1 hour and then BAM, POW, KAPOW!!! Darn I ran out of gas. I have walked for about an hour and the sun is starting to set down. When all or a sudden! I can hear a helicopter flying over me. Robert runs about half a mile. God, I can't see a thing its pitch black. Then in front of him kame a SWAT van he turned around and there were two more cop cars.

Chapter 2: JAIL!!!

All I could see was red and blue with helicopter lights on him. I thought he was a goner for sure. I knew I had to make a getaway. Finally, he surrendered, just like I knew he should have. He was taken to jail with criminal charges and 25 years in jail. WOW only five months have passed. When Robert was in jail, he made two friends who became his jail mates. His jail mates were in jail for 30 years. Robert started to tell him about the plan-- they got to work. Robert felt like it's been 90000 years. when Robert was in jail Robert makes a crew of four of his jail mates. I choose you all because you all know this place more than anybody else. Robert and his crew made a plan to escape.

CHAPTER 3: THE ESCAPE

They started to get to work. Robert and his crew mates take turns digging the hole, but Robert wants to ditch his crew, so he builds a second tunnel with a dead end, so they are trapped. When the hole is finished Robert knows he is going to ditch them. He tells them to go to the wrong tunnel but, he had put a sign saying to go to the right one. But the tunnel was the wrong one, so he ditches them. Robert tells them we are going to escape at midnight when the guard is on the other side of the building 1:30AM Robert puts a blanket over the prison cell fence. Robert goes in the tunnel first and one at a time they go in. Robert rushes to the other side tunnel and in about 14min Robert is out he goes to the nearest farm supply and steals a shovel he runs to the tunnel and covers it with dirt and was so happy he started crying. Robert said to himself finally!!! I'm out of this disgusting prison. Robert walks about half a mile and finds a dirt bike he thanks lord he found it, was kick start, so it would be easy to start it well he did end up starting it and takes off on it and heads to Mexico.

CHAPTER 4: THE CROSSING

When Robert reaches Mexico, he thinks he can cross the border by making a hill of dirt, so he thinks about it and decide to do it. Robert finds a farm with a lot of farming tools and takes a shovel again. Robert take off on the pit bike and heads to the border. He takes about half an hour to build the hill.

Well time has come time to cross Robert takes his time and gets enough speed to jump and first thing he looks down 20 feet off the ground and is scared straight but then (boom)!! Robert screams with happiness he is finally on the other side. When he reaches Mexico, Robert starts popping Wheelies. Robert was so happy he began crying. (I thought I would never escape or cross the border on my own but look at me now.)

CHAPTER 5: I'M BACK

Robert was living in Mexico for five years. He didn't have the fancy life that he really wanted. He wanted all the nice things he deserved, and there was only one way to get them. He decided to go back to the United States. That's where he needed to be. He wasn't done with his business-he wanted to start a new robbing spree. He had business to handle. He had a new life to live, and this time he planned it right, and he was not going to get caught again.

"My time has come to start a new generation." Robert said.
