

Fluffy and Martha.

Written by: Abigail J.

Martha the cat lived in a house loved by a girl named Joy. Martha was a gift to Joy on her second birthday. They always played with each other. It was Joy who always fed her. They even went to sleep together. After school Joy always spent time with Martha even before she did her homework. Joy and Martha were best friends!

One afternoon as Joy was walking down the street from school, she saw a box. Coming from the box she heard some whining. Joy was curious, she walked to the box to see what is in the box. As Joy peeped into the box, she saw the most adorable thing ever! "PUPPY!" shouted Joy. She looked around to see if anyone was going to take the dog. Few hours later Joy came back to the place where the dog was, the dog was still there! She ran and got the dog and walked home. As Joy got home, she pleaded her mom if she could keep the puppy, her mom said "yes" because the puppy was so cute and adorable to say "No". My mother picked up the puppy and hugged her. Joy was extremely happy, placed her books down and started to play with the dog.

Martha was not happy at the new addition to the family. She was furious because of how Joy cared for the dog, especially when Joy called her Fluffy. She started to play with Fluffy more, gave her treats, slept with her hugging, and played with Martha after her homework!

Martha wished that dog never came! Fluffy on the other hand loved Martha. Fluffy tried to play with Martha, but she just walked away. Martha tried to get Fluffy in trouble. It didn't work on Joy, she knew Martha was jealous of Fluffy.

One day Martha became pregnant. Soon enough she gave birth to one kitten. When Joy played with the kitten, Fluffy wanted to play with her to. But Martha always hissed at her. "That's what you get for stealing my person!" thought Martha. When Fluffy gets hissed at, she goes to the corner where her doggy bed is, and waits until Joy finish playing with the kitten.

As you know, being a mother is really complicated. Martha is one to. So she needed a nice nap. As Martha was doing so, she heard a big commotion! Martha woke up and started running to where the sound was coming from! When she got closer, she noticed that it was the cries of her baby. When she arrived to where the noise is coming from, she was very shocked.

When Martha looked there standing was Fluffy. In Fluffy's mouth was Martha kitten. In front of him was a dead snake. Martha couldn't believe what she saw. Fluffy saved her kitten! To show her love, and ask for forgiveness she rubbed against Fluffy's body. Fluffy did forgive her. When Martha looked at Fluffy s leg it was bleeding! The snake bit her! Martha ran to Joy, and brought her there. Joy called her dad (Ethan).Ethan quickly took Fluffy to the vet to get treated.

When Fluffy came home Martha let her play with her kitten, and Martha also played with Fluffy. She didn't care if Fluffy got more food than herself, or if Joy played with her first. Martha loved Fluffy the same as Fluffy loved Martha.

Acknowledgements

“Scottish Nature Photography Awards 5 to 31 Oct Ober Logan Botanic Garden, Dumfries and Galloway From the Dramatic Scenery of Buachaille Etive Mòr to the Wondrous Wildlife of the Cairngorms, Scotland Has Long Been an Inspiration to Outdoor Photographers Who Hope to Encapsulate the Beauty and Diversity of the Natural World through Stunning Imagery. See Some of the Most Successful Pictures of Scotland’s Wilderness at Logan Botanic Garden This Autumn, Where 30 Pictures from the 2016 Scottish Nature Photography Awards Will Be on Show. Now in Its Seventh Year, the Competition Has Ten Categories – Including Land, Sea and Coast, Natural Object and Wildlife. The Judges Were Scottish Landscape Photographer Andy Hall, Underwater Photographer and Ecologist Richard Shucksmith and Co-Organiser of the Competition Niall Irvine. rbge.org.uk.” Images Dog and Cat, 26 Sept. 2017, pictures-and-images.com/content/image-dog-and-cat.html.

