

Vyvian Goes Missing

“Faster Vyvian,” Emma said. Emma is a 12-year-old girl. She has a horse named Vyvian. Our story begins with Emma riding Vyvian on the plains near her farm. Then all the sudden, Emma saw something in the grass. She got off Vyvian and picked up the object. It was a rock with a candy wrapper around it. “What a disappointment,” Emma said. She looked back at Vyvian but she was gone! “Vyvian!”, she called but there was no answer. She ran to the apple orchard because Vyvian loves apples; but no luck. Then she went to the old barn where she found Vyvian; but no luck. She looked by Vyvian’s favorite lake; but no luck. She sat down by the tree that was next to the lake and started crying. “Where are you?” she whispered. Then she heard something that sounded like a horse. She looked up. “Vyvian,” she screamed. She ran up to Vyvian and said, “I will never lose you again”.

THE END