

Ella M.

Don't Go To The Pool After Dark

One Night, three lovely girls named Baily, Ava and Julie all went to an indoor pool. The pool was completely empty. All you could hear was the splish-splash of the pool jets. Ava didn't want to get in, but Julie and Baily had an idea. They said, "just put your feet in, it'll be ok." Ava thought about it, then finally murmured "Fine". When Ava put her feet into the pool a long chill went down her back and then, Julie and Baily pushed her in! Ava got so mad you could see her face turn red, and even a bit of red in her elegant long blond hair! She quickly pulled Baily and Julie in and they all laughed, but the laughing stopped when they heard footsteps.

They all turned around and heard a deadly gagging sound. That's when they saw Connor, Baily's boyfriend, laying on the ground. He looked so pale. His eyes almost looked like glass eyes. Blood was squirting out so badly you could almost swim in it. Then, they heard a short "he-he" sound. They looked around but they couldn't see any one. Then, they heard a "splish-splash" in the pool. They slowly turned to the pool there they saw a hideous boy with dark blood on his face. They screamed so loudly it hurt! The hideous boy chuckled "YOU CAN'T RUN!" but Ava was able to sprint out of the indoor pool. Baily cried, "WHY! I-I-I" then burst out in tears. Julie put a hand on Baily's back and whispered, "We have to get out of here." They quickly got outside. A few moments later, the boy appeared again but this time with a blood stained knife gripped tightly in his hand. Ava screamed, "WHAT DO YOU WANT?"

He just laughed a slow little "ha-ha". Ava kicked him in the guts and he made a loud painful moan and fell over. They needed to think of an escape plan. Baily grabbed the knife and was just about to throw it at the boy. Julie hoped there was some good in the boy and she did want to see him die, so she threw her hand in front of him. The knife went through Julie's hand and she fell to the ground sobbing in pain. Ava quickly searched the boy who was still unconscious and found his phone. She called 911 and told the police everything. The police asked, "how old are you?" Ava answered, "we are all thirteen sir." The police chuckled, "Get some rest" and ended the call. Baily said "I'll be right back" and she ran to her house and brought her mom to the scene. When she got back, Ava, Julie, and Connor were all stacked up on each other, like they were lifeless. Then Baily realized her mom's skin was peeling off! She screamed, "MOM?!" Her mom turned into a man! The man squeezed Baily, then lifted her up in the air and roared, "Bye Bye" and threw her down. The breath got knocked out of her. She was about to run but then got stabbed too! She felt so cold, then fell to the ground. Dead. She was dead. Just like all of her friends. She slowly closed her eyes. That was the end.