

Ollie the ostrich

By: Avery W.

T.v... GONE!

Once upon a time there was an ostrich named Ollie. he was 5 years old and LOVED t.v... unfortunately the t.v. was downstairs and she was not allowed downstairs. So she moped around the house. when her mom asked what was wrong Ollie told her that the t.v. was down stairs now. Her mom told her that she was old enough to solve her own problems. So when Ollie thought about it in her room before bed time she got a bright idea. Her idea was to sell lemonade to earn money to buy a new t.v. Until then she drilled a hole in the floor so she could poke her head through the hole and watch t.v. The only problem was she didn't know how to make lemonade. When her grandmother came she and grandma had a talk. "grandma i have a problem. I want to sell lemonade at the park but I don't know how."

The gift

"it's okay sweetheart. You know what? I'm going to give something to you." soothed grandma. She handed Ollie her cookbook. Ollie flipped through the pages and she saw that there was about every recipe in the WORLD! "Thank you grandma!" Ollie said, bursting with excitement. She ran outside as fast as her ostrich legs could carry her.

The Plan

With her grandma's cookbook in one wing and lemons, water, and sugar in the other, Ollie raced off to set up her booth. She squirted and splashed, smashed, mashed, and stirred until her lemonade was ready. then she borrowed a table from her dad, and some ribbons from her mom until her booth was ready. She sold lemonade for 1$ a cup. She sold it to all her friends floor. To celebrate her great success they turned on the t.v. and Ollie including mom, dad, and grandma. She raised 27$!

With those 27$ she bought a saw to cut open the poked her head through the hole and watched it with them.
