

The ninja

By Luis S.

Once upon a time there a kid named Stuart he was 8 years old. Stuart liked to read ninja-comics Stuart was excited because it was the first day of school Stuart was in 3rd grade When Stuart go in the class the teacher read a story about a king and 20 guards and a ninja Stuart was excited because he like ninjas when school was over the principle told all the students we have a math crown you have to work hard on math if you work on math you will get the crown. Later the night Stuart heard a loud sound and saw 5 guards taking the math crown Stuart made a ninja costume and follow the guards then he saw a big castle with a lot of crowns Stuart sneak in the castle and saw a mad mad king the king said "Get me a crown" the 5 guards got the crown and give the math crown to the king Then the king saw Stuart hidden to get the crown Stuart got the crown and put the king in a cage and save the day.
