

Superman

The story begins when I met a superhero named Superman. He was 38 years old and would ride around my neighborhood when one day, the neighbor's house caught on fire. Inside was, it was a grandma, her grandchildren and a dog named Max. Everyone was scared and didn't know what to do. The firefighters wouldn't hurry and no help was coming fast enough. A gigantic superman arrived and flew through the window on the second floor. A few moments later he was rushing out carrying the grandma and kids. He made it out safe but realized he had forgotten to rescue Max out of the burning structure. However, no one know Max was a special dog with super power! Max made it out safe without a scratch on his small body. Everyone was appalled and wondered how was it possible if the entire building was caught in flames. Everyone in the entire building was clapping and asking if everyone was safe. They all wanted to thank the mysterious man who had saved the entire family from a terrible death but he was already gone.

The house was destroyed and nothing was left from the fire. The only thing left was just the memories and the story the kids had to talk about during school on the existence of Superhero. No one really knows or will ever know who this mysterious guy really is but me! I never saw him again, probably because he knew I would ask questions. Whoever he is, I know he is saving more lives out there in the world!
