I, Jessica Roberts, am ready for the Pumpkin Patch. So is my brother, Justin Roberts. We are taking them to school! I am making cupcakes for my class. The Pumpkin Patch is only in 2 days! My mom and dad love the Pumpkin Patch, but they aren't getting along. I hope we can still go.

OMG! It is almost here the Pumpkin Patch, and now it's in 1 day! Today we are baking the cupcakes. I HAVE to bake with my brother my mom said. But, I'm just letting him ice them with a butter knife. He always wants to help me. "DING!" They are done. Now he can ice them. I took the cupcakes to school, and we had a party—it was fun.

It is time the Pumpkin Patch, I can't wait. Dad took us to the Pumpkin Patch, there are so many pumpkins WAIT! Why are the pumpkins moving they are COMING CLOSER and CLOSER they have UGLY faces my brother got bitten by a pumpkin oh no! They are getting bigger and bigger they are saying "Candy, we don't have candy." Dad gave him the candy from my dad's wallet, it's mint gum. "Dad I thought we didn't have gum," I said. "I hide my gum in my wallet pocket," dad explained. Wait! We can get more and more gum so if we give it to them, and it will burst. We went to the car to check on the floor, but we found the hottest candy RED HOTS! It BURSTED open and was raining gum, pumpkin seeds, and red hots. There was one last pumpkin it was ugly. It didn't want candy it was just perfect. Two days later the pumpkin was ruined. We left it there for 2 more days, and we put up the cameras. The next thing you know, we were watching the cameras and the pumpkin moved!! "AHHHH!" We screamed! It popped up. The pumpkin was dead. We killed the pumpkin. That was the most scariest pumpkin patch EVER!! I wonder, where is Justin?
