

Crazy Man of the Loose

By: Mykol H

It was dusk and everyone was asleep, but one guy that was always at the park. The next day the guy wasn't there, so I thought he was in his shabby house. I checked, but he wasn't there. That night a child went missing and the guy was at the park wearing a mask. He had a knife in his hand. The missing kids increased and increased, and I knew who it was. It was the guy at the park. So I got a gun and ran outside and shot him in the arm. But he came closer and closer and grabbed me and dragged me. I passed out and woke up in a ditch. I saw the missing kids but some were dead. One of the kids guts were falling on the floor, the others were hanged and some were alive. But I was chained up so there was nothing I could do. I was able to grab my phone and call 911. The guy came back, and said, "Well they'll find you not me." He went to go get more kids, so that's when I tried to break the chain, but it was too strong. When the cops came I yelled "HELP! HELP! that's when the cops found me and the missing kids. The kids were glad to be alive and safe now but that man is out there getting ready to get more kids.

The End
