What's the meaning night and sleep? Doesn't everybody want to stay up and do stuff all the time of your life? Well you'd probably say you don't know and this is a story of why so you might want to get comfortable. So one average morning I was sitting on my bed sketching on my laptop eating some cereal as always, when my mom came in and handed me a flier it said in bold print drawing competition $2,000 prize she said so what do you think Bre said mom millions of people are probably signing up for this already I don't have a chance. Oh come on Bre you are amazing at drawing embrace it and plus it's two grand. I noted .Bre, ok i'll think about it. Ok by .as Bre leaned back in her soft blue comforter she thought "this could change the whole year .meanwhile Meg the empress of the night was preparing energy crystals with her town citizens which are all women for the men of planet jet before the next sunrise or they will have to move to earth and be normal . thinking about that made Meg bundle even faster than ever. She couldn't possibly get sent to earth on her first year of being empress her mother would be furious, so Meg ordered her top menders to create power crystals twice as fast. Because she was not going to give up. The next sunrise the men came to Zen to pick up the power crystals, and when they counted them three were missing Jet declared war. Meg was filled with anger Meg ordered the menders to take day shift the menders were trembling with w4fear for the light of the sun would weaken then and they would have to quit their jobs. Meg remembered a tale that her grandmother used to tell her when she was little of a child destined to save Zen, but it was just a myth but Meg was desperate to save Zen so Meg paced up for Earth and left. So Bre was unaware of Meg's arrival so she ate dinner and then went to her bay window when suddenly she saw a shooting star she went down stairs and raced outside she followed the smoke when she got closer she began to see a teenage girl Bre ran inside and told her mom what she saw,so her mom called the ambulance in the hospadle

They said she had a twisted ankle then they said to take her home and take care of her like she was my mom's.So we took her home and set up the bunk beds and set her up on the bottom bunk,so three hours later Meg started to wake up Bre was so excited she ran to the kitchen and her mom,so her and her mom raced in the room Meg was so confused she had no idea where she was so she decided to ask "Como joke a mala" um excuse me?
