

Heaven is Love

There was a boy who was nice and kind and helpful. But he didn't have friends. Sad and alone he found a dog. He had a friend. He is a dog. He plays with him. He goes to school for his owner. But one day it was different. The dog was waiting then he walked to the street and he got hit by a car! The boy was looking for him. Then he saw people around the street. Then he saw the dog. The boy was running with the dog in his hands. The boy saw a doctor's office for animals but it was closed. The dog died. Remembering the good times, the boy shouted for help, but no answer. The boy had a heart attack and died but in heaven they saw each other and heaven is love.
