

WHAT IS BEHIND THE WALLPAPER?

By: RILEY ANN S.

This is the story of two best friends that lived together. Sara's best friend, Lilly, now lives with her because Lilly's mom and dad died from a terrible car accident.

"Lilly, Sara, come here" mom said. "I have some news to tell you all. We are going to move." Everybody was quiet for a minute.

"What? Why do we have to leave?" Sara and Lilly cried at the same time.

"It is because I just found out that there are termites in this house," said mom. "I've already started packing up our clothes and furniture. I need you all to start packing up your room.

"OK," they said in a sad voice.

The next day mom, dad and the girls started looking for a new house. Finally, they found a bigger and safer house. After they bought their new house the family moved in and unpacked all their belongings.

Lilly and Sara asked their mom if they could go look around in their new room to decide where to hang their pictures. While looking they found a hidden door behind some loose wallpaper. They entered a dark place that led to a staircase. Both Lilly and Sara were shivering. The two girls tip toed

o

w

n the creaking staircase. When they reached the bottom of the stairs the girls spotted a movement in the distance. Then they heard a whimpering sound behind an old cedar chest.

Sara and Lilly slowly walked toward the cedar chest. They cautiously peeked over the chest and all the sudden.....

"AAAAAAAAHHHHHHHH!! It's a ghost" screamed Sara and Lilly

"AAAAAAAAHHHHHHHH!! People!" screamed the ghost.

After their initial shock wore off the girls noticed that the ghost was also trembling with fear. They stopped shivering with fear and Sara asked the ghost if she was OK?

"We will not hurt you!" Lilly said in a calm but scared voice.

"Yes, I'm ok." said the ghost in a whimpering voice.

"Yes, we are fine."

"My name is Silhouette." said the ghost. "What is yours?"

"My name is Sara and this is my best friend Lilly."

Then the girls and the ghost started talking and they lost track of time. Sara and Lilly visited with the ghost until they heard their mom call their names.

Sara said, "We will come back to see you some time later. OK?"

"OK," Silhouette said.

So, the girls asked their mom and dad if they could take down the wallpaper and paint the walls pink, so they could visit Silhouette every day.

From then on, they were BGFFs. (Best Ghost Friends Forever)