

The Legend of the Haunted Cabin

“Run!” Grace screamed to her son, Matthew. Matthew tripped over the chair that had just fallen over onto the floor. Grace ran over to him, helped him up, and dragged him out of the house. The spirit moaned loudly and reached out to grab the boy, who was just out of his reach. Grace and her son jumped in the car and sped off never to return to the house in the forest.

Back at the house the two restless spirits were laughing and howling at the sight of the two running away in fear. “Good job Kevin!” said the older looking spirit. “Thanks dad!” the younger ghost said. “That will teach them... I hate the living!”.

A chill filled the air on this Halloween night in 1999. “How much further is it?” Rose asked. “Not to much further, it should be right up ahead”, said Daniel. A few minutes later, Shawn pointed and yelled “there it is!”. Peach turned to her sister Rose and said “I don't think we should go in there, I have a bad feeling about this”. Daniel put his arm around his girlfriend Rose and told Peach “Don't be such a chicken, there is nothing to worry about". "Yeah, don't worry, we can protect you", claimed Shawn. "Yeah right, that makes me feel so much better" Peach sarcastically responded. "C'mon you bunch of chickens! Let's go into the house" Daniel said excitedly.

As they walked into the old looking cabin Shaun walked into a little boys room and something took him "HELP!" He yelled. Everyone ran to the room to help Shaun, but all they saw was a trail of blood. It lead to the next room where they saw Shaun's lifeless body. They all ran out but Peach stopped because she wanted to look for clues. She called 911 and then went back into the room.

As she entered the room, something put a firm grip on her arm as she was swept away. Peach let out a loud scream as Daniel and Rose ran back to help her. The two carefully walked up to the doorway and were greeted by a eerie sight. They saw Peach floating in mid air and unable to move. Rose called out to her and stepped towards her to help when Daniel suddenly grabbed her and pulled her back. A large ghostly figure swooped in and suddenly Peach's head was ripped off. Rose screamed in terror as she turned away. Daniel was frozen stiff at the sight of the ghostly figures.

“Mwhahahaha, Welcome to your doom!” The older looking ghost yelled. Daniel and Rose ran for their lives as the two ghosts gave chase. “Hurry!” Daniel screamed to Rose who was running behind him. Daniel looked back and realized that he was alone. Rose had not been running with him like he thought. “Rose!” He screamed, but no answer came.

Then Daniel saw a shadowy figure as he started to hear moaning. Rose, now a zombie, came after Daniel who ran for his life. Daniel barely made it out of the house, running as fast as he could. The older ghost stopped his son “let him go” he said. “Why dad? Kevin asked. “We can get him too!” the younger ghost added. “We let one live to tell the tale of the haunted cabin in the woods, more kids will come because of the legends, more for us to scare!” he told him. “And more of the living to destroy!”.

To this day, the Legend of the Haunted Cabin lives on. Many teenagers have gone missing in the woods where the cabin is located and they have never been found. Kids of all ages tell the spooky stories of the two ghosts and a few dare to find out if the legends are true.
