

The Love Heroes

Chapter 1: The Mission

Once upon a time there was a boy that was abandoned by his family. His name was Jay and he lived in a cabin in the woods. He built the cabin by himself when he was just 5 years old! Jay is not an ordinary boy, he was born with some amazing powers like strength, speed and an ability to fly.

One night as Jay slept, he had a dream that seemed so real. He was asked by a small faerie to complete three tasks in a world far away called Loveland. The faerie explained how Loveland used to be a kind place, but an evil man named Shadow and his assistant Shadical have taken over and made everything dark and gloomy. In order for the town to return to the way it was, Jay must complete three tasks.

1. He must find the Princess of Loveland.
2. Make a club
3. Defeat shadow and his assistant Shadical
4. Marry the princess

When Jay awoke the next morning he wasn't sure if his dream was real or truly just a dream. He went into his kitchen to eat and saw a map lying on his table. The map was labeled Loveland. So it wasn't a dream, I really do have to complete the four tasks the faerie told me about. "I guess it is time I do my first task.," Jay said to himself. So he set off on his journey to find the princess. On the way he fought many different monsters like the Raven, Martian, and the Pounder. Finally he arrived at the Kingdom of Loveland. Jay decided to go in. As he walked in, Jay could hear strange noises like someone was whispering and he got the impression that someone was watching him. Those whispers were actually the Princess and her maid. They spied Jay as he entered the Kingdom. The Princess was in hiding in a large hollowed out tree just inside the entrance to the Kingdom. She and her maid were trying to decide if Jay could be trusted, would he help them? Jay's hearing was exceptional, just like his strength so he could hear what the maid and Princess were saying, when an average person would not. He followed the whispering sounds he heard to the hole in the tree, there he saw the Princess, task number 1 done he thought.

Chapter 2: The Second Task

The Princess was very kind to Jay, her name was Rose. The next day Jay was thinking about how to accomplish his next task; making a club. He told the Princess and she said "Are you crazy?" "Yeah," I replied. "You are talking to a guy whose middle name is danger." "How can we make this club?" Princess Rose proved to be very resourceful and clever. She and her maid took Jay through some tunnels that were built into the base of the large tree. The tunnels led to the castle where she showed Jay an old woodpile that was abandoned. Jay got to work straight away carving a club out of a piece of wood. Just as he was finishing the club, Jay came face to face with Zombies. The Zombies were sent by Shadow to try to defeat Jay, but they didn't know about Jay's super powers. Jay was able to defeat the Zombies easily--now it was time to find Shadow and his assistant. Shadow wasn't as hard to find as he thought, he was pretty angry that his Zombies were defeated so he appeared in front of Jay to fight his own battle. His assistant, Shadrical, stood nearby ready to help if needed. Again just like with the Zombies, Shadow and Shadrical had no idea that Jay had superhuman powers. With one strike of his club he was able to obliterate Shadow and his evil henchman.

All in a day's work, thought Jay.

Chapter 3: Last Task

Now that he has done 2 of his 3 tasks, it was time for the third. It was time for Jay to marry Rose, the beautiful Princess. Jay married the Princess the next day and stopped the gloom that had plagued Loveland. Together he and Rose made the world a better place.

The End.
