

By:Yesenia R.

The Bully

There was a girl named Visa who always wanted to become a singer. One day at school she was telling her friends about her singing. Her friend said, "Sing for us, I would love to hear you." So Visa did, and her friends were in awe, but then a bully named Tony came up to her and said mean stuff. Tony never wanted to bully people, it all just happened when in the sixth grade, he liked a girl named Jessica. He thought Jessica was the prettiest girl ever, but this bully Zack always made fun of Tony until one day, Tony couldn't take it anymore and frustrated he ran into the boys bathroom. He looked in the mirror and said, "Ughh I wish I was like the other kids." He yanked off his braces and made his outfit look cooler and ran out saying mean stuff to Zack. Visa knew that sometimes someone becomes a bully because they were bullied. So she had an idea why Tony was mean. Tony continued to give Visa trouble until her friend came up to him and said stop or I'll report you!!! Tony ran off!!! "Thanks," Visa said. Her friend reminded her of her concert, she was gonna have to hurry! They arrived at the the concert on time and Visa sung as best as she could. When it was time to announce the winner Visa was very nervous. The announcer's voice came over the microphone "And tonight's winner is," he said "VISA!" "Omg omg no way!!!!" "Thank you," she says

By:Yesenia R.

crying. "I never thought I would make it, thanks!!!!" "You all gave me courage thank you guys!!!!"

Moral: Sometimes people say mean things, but just remember to never give up no matter what and chase your dreams!!!