

Charlittie's Letter
Suhani P.

On a crisp, windy day, a girl named Charlittie Cleventine was walking down the street. She was with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cleventine; they were going Christmas shopping. They went to a shop called Santa's Work Shop, it is the best shop in the town. She bought her presents and went home. A few days later, it was Christmas Eve. The tree was set up, the stockings were over flowing, and everyone was watching the movie ELF, while drinking eggnog. When it was time to sleep, Charlittie went to her bed and sat there, she was going to catch Santa. She stayed up all night, but never got to catch him. So, she went to sleep. When she woke up in the morning, she found a letter on the top of her desk. She opened the letter and screamed, "SANTA!!!" She calmed down and read it. It said that it's useless trying to catch him, you need a sleigh and some reindeer. From that day, she never tried to catch Santa again.
