

Gymnastics

By: Livny

One hot, sweaty, sunny day Lina was in the park doing incredible gymnastics. She had to do gymnastics without her mom noticing because her mom would freak out when she sees her doing it. When Lina was done she went back home and had some delicious dinner. After Lina was done eating dinner she went to bed and fell asleep. The next morning Lina was in the park practicing gymnastics when her older sister came with ice cream. Her sister saw that Lina was doing gymnastics and so she hid behind the trees and then ran all the way home and told their mom. When Lina was done she went back home and everyone was staring at her. She said, “why are you staring at me like that?” “Because you were doing gymnastics! You can get hurt or break a leg. Now you are grounded for a week, you will never leave this house! Now go to your room!”, said her mother. Lina was so frustrated. The next morning Lina saw a sign-up sheet for gymnastics, so Lina signed up and hid the paper and went. Her mom went looking for her and knew where to find her. When she saw her, Lina was jumping, rolling, and bouncing. Lina knew she could do it, so her mom apologized for telling her she couldn’t do it. From then on Lina’s mom let her do gymnastics.
