

The Reindeer Who Saved Christmas

By Edwin L.

Chapter 1

Two days before Christmas Eve a gingerbread man named Wilson was wondering in the North Pole when he found Santa's Village. Everywhere Wilson went he made friends. He went to meet Santa and they made friends. He went to the toy workshop and made friends with Santa's elves. After he made friends, he called his brother Jackson to come to Santa's Village. Jackson did not like Christmas but Wilson did not know.

Flashback...

Last Christmas someone tried to eat him which made him angry, so he started to hate Christmas.

Story continued....

Jackson did not like Christmas so he had come to ruin everything!

Chapter 2

It was the night of Christmas Eve when Santa was about to deliver all the presents, but first he had to get Rudolph because it was foggy. Santa was taking off, but Jackson snuck on Santa's sleigh without anyone noticing. On the way to Greenland, Jackson pushed all the presents off the sleigh then detached all the reindeer and Santa fell into the ocean and Jackson go away by riding on a reindeer.

Chapter 3

An hour later Dasher, Dancer, Prancer and the rest went back for Santa except for Rudolph, he went to find the presents. The reindeer that Jackson was on made Jackson fall into the ocean water and was never to be seen again. All the reindeer pulled Santa out and Rudolph found all the presents and Santa delivered all the presents in time.

The End