By Bailey H.

When Claire was a little girl she always wanted to be a cheerleader. So she saw people trying to sign up. But butterflies said there were a lot of people and on the dragonflies too. So right when she found a cheerleading team they were closed. Then she went home and got on her bed and she read how to be a cheer leader and then she went to bed and then when she woke up and then she was late for school. After school she went to go to the tryouts and they said that she was bad at cheerleading so then she went home again. Her mom said "your birthday is tomorrow." She said, "I know mom" and then mom said, "ok" and then Claire went upstairs and read her book and she read and read and read. Then she was done with her book. Then she went outside and practiced for cheerleading. Then her mom went outside and helped her practice. So then she was done practicing so she went back to school and she said, "I am ready to be in the team" and then they said, "we are full now bye." So she started asking her mom what should I do and her mom said "why don't u make ur own cheerleading squad so she did. She went back to school and said who wants to join my cheerleading squad. We are going to be called panthers and all the people said I do. So then the butterflies were mad and then the dragonflies where mad and the puppies were too. So Claire chose John, Emily, Riley, and Michel. She was practicing for a game and they went and they won the game. Claire was proud of her team mates.
