

The Haunted House

By Julia D. and Felicity D.

In the 1980's there was a Haunted House that everyone said, "It is really haunted, you can really see the ghost and things floating in air without string."

One day 3 teenagers named Austin, Emerald, and Ariel were walking home from school together. Ariel suggested that they would sneak into the haunted house at 3:00 a.m. the next morning. "We are all going into the haunted house," she said. Emerald and Austin shouted "NO WAY are we going into a creepy house like that!" "Come on, Please" said Ariel. "Fine, lets go." "See you at 3:00" said Austin and Emerald in unison. The next morning before dawn, they were ready to go. It was 3:00 a.m. exactly when they went inside. The door slammed shut, which made them all jump. Once inside, they noticed things were floating in the air without string. They continued looking around when all of a sudden they saw a ghost heading directly at them. They all ran into separate rooms. Emerald went into the kitchen. She froze because spoons were flying everywhere, plates and pans, too. And the fridge was going crazy. Meanwhile Austin was in the office. He froze too because pens, paper, and the computer went crazy. He heard something that said "come play with us." Ariel was locked in the room where all the ghosts were walking and talking to her. Whenever she tried to walk or touch something, the house shook and things would break. Ariel, Austin, and Emerald tried to run but Ariel's door was locked. Austin and Emerald managed to get out. Ariel did try to escape through the window, but it was too late. The house started tumbling down. Austin saw Ariel through the window and tried to save her, however he was too late. Ariel was trapped. Not sure what had happened, people searched for her without success. After several days, some kids found her body. The body was quickly rushed to the hospital. Doctors started checking for a heartbeat. Her parents came in to say goodbye. Suddenly the defibrillator went up and down. She was alive. The nurse came in and was shocked to see her alive. When she woke up, her parents were there. She had lost all her memory so could not remember what had happened to her. She had a few bruises and scratches but was lucky to be alive. When she got home, her friends were there. Austin & Emerald gave her a huge hug. They gave her a surprise party. Everyone was happy to see her alive. As for the haunted house, people say it was gone forever. Or was it...
