

The Princess in Training

By Gabriella C.

After saving Sleeping Beauty and Snow White from their curses and having their happily ever after, Princess Scarlett finally wants to have her happily ever after, so she asked her true love Prince Jacob if he would marry her and he said yes so they were getting married next week. So the day came Princess Scarlett was getting married to Prince Jacob. Then Princess Scarlett was getting dressed up in to the wedding dress and Prince Jacob was getting dressed up and then the time came Princess Scarlett was walking down the aisle when King Jonathan came from a faraway land to ruin the wedding. Then while Princess Scarlett was walking down the aisle Prince Jacob was getting captured so Prince Jacob told Princess Scarlett to run and tell her father King Garrett to send warriors to save him. Then they can get married and live happily ever after. So Princess Scarlett ran all the way to where her dad lived and she told her dad everything that Prince Jacob told her and her dad said that he will do everything he could to. It has been two days after Prince Jacob got captured. Princess Scarlett couldn't wait any longer. Princess Scarlett wanted to sneak out and go and find her friend that is a warrior and ask her if she can train Princess Scarlett and then Princess Scarlett can save Prince Jacob. So Princess Scarlett was sneaking out of the castle "bam" Princess Scarlett accidentally bumped into an armor stand and it made a loud sound but no one heard her so Princess Scarlett ran to the gates before it would close and she barely made it. So Princess Scarlett finally got out of the castle and she ran all the way into the woods where her friend was and then Princess Scarlett saw her friend the warrior a few feet away. Princess Scarlett kept running then she got to her friend and her name was Nikki. So she asked Nikki if she would train her so she can save Prince Jacob and Nikki said yes and they started training right away. First Nikki said you have to always have a horse. So they went to the farm to get some horses, then they were getting good at everything they needed to do to get Prince Jacob back so they trained all day and the next day they will be able to get Prince Jacob back so Princess Scarlett was so excited when she went to bed. Then the day came they were going to get Prince Jacob back so they got geared up and got their swords ready then they got the horses and went to the castle. When they got to the castle they went in and defeated some guards and saw Prince Jacob and they sneaked by King Jonathan and got Prince Jacob back and got out of the castle. Then they next week they were getting married again then the day came Princess Scarlett was getting dressed up in her dress and then it was time they were getting married so Princess Scarlett was walking down the aisle and then they said they may kiss the bride and then Princess Scarlett and Prince Jacob became Queen Scarlett and King Jacob of the kingdom.
