The Monster Under My Bed

As I closed my eyes to go to sleep I hear creaking on the floorboard so I try clenching my toes and eyes. I hear small footsteps toward my bed. I open my eyes. I can see it. I got out of my bed to get a glass of water. I put on my slippers and go down stairs. I got water and go back upstairs. I get in my bed as fast as I can. I got under the covers and clench my toes and eyes. I come up from the covers and check the clock 10 pm?! I wish this night was over. I want to lay with my parents but I'm 10 years old I'm technically a grown man. Mom says if I eat more vegetables and drink more milk I'll grow. Plus I have muscles and I'm going to be brave and fight through the night. Then I heard 3 loud stomps that shook the whole house. I go back under the covers so quick I'm quicker than flash. Ok Ok I'm not brave but you don't like monsters either. I slowly come.... Again. And check the time....10:08. Wow this night will be the death of me. Well at least I'm still in bed. Ok I'm brave. I SLOWLY check under the bed. I shiver. My spine has the chills I now have goosebumps. I see slime and it's red. Oh no! It's 10:13 and I'm going to die I'm not grown I'm not grown I clench my eyes....I feel something slobbery on my face a pink soft furry head is sticking out. Aww. It's so so adorable. I lay back on my pillow. I'm going to sleep tonight.....

THE END.
