Easter, Valentines, and New Years are cool holidays. However, Christmas is a magnificent time of the year for you to celebrate and enjoy. When it is Christmas you feel like you're on top of the world and having a red letter day!

On Christmas everyone is elated to open their presents. Kids are laughing while grown ups are taking videos and your family is coming to your house to celebrate with you. Furthermore, you can enjoy your presents while being with your family.

One memory was when I got a treasure box from my uncle. I was covered with jewels and a lot of stickers and princesses. Christmastime is so happy you can celebrate and eat. Some foods you might eat is turkey, ham, biscuits, and hot dogs. However, try not to get carried away with it. Some people think Valentines is better but somehow I still think this holiday is the best.
