

Luna's Moon

By: Hailey S.

Hi! My name is Luna. I'm stuck in a moon, can u not read my handwriting. Well ill change it, there better now, sorry about the special hand writing regularly, now onto what I was talking about. My name is Luna I am trapped in a moon that has a, blue crescent on it even though it's like a new moon. Well I'm off to bed bye~

Dear Luna, it's me Amethyst were trying to get you back, ok. - sincerely Amethyst.

Amethyst sighed" when is the same moon coming back "she asked Neo. " Tonight" he said deeply "we need to get our materials and go ". He started running to his secret place, as amethyst followed the road got steeper. Neo had long claws so to him it was easy, but amethyst had short claws, so it was harder. Soon they arrived and they hurried and grabbed their materials and ran to the spot were Luna disappeared. They waited for night to fall, and then the same moon came up that took Luna they divided into the light and ran into the moon. When they got there, they saw Luna and started to cry "LUNA!?" they both shouted, but they were running out of time, so they grabbed Luna and ran home.

Then they lived happily

Ever after
