

No Title

By Nathan C.

A man named Ryan he lived a normal life a happy life. Until it all changed. He had a wife her name is samantha/sam, a dog named oreo, and two kids Mark and Jack he was happy, but until it all faded away. One night the smoak alarm went off a huge flame gazing over he's house colaps and he's family didn't make it but he did. For a long time he was homeless hunger and lonly. But one day a man said "don't feel sad of what you lost" so ryan took that advise and made a fresh start a good start.