

There was a dark and stormy night me, and my mom were at a funraser. Then when we got home are house door was open,and we thought we left the door open, but we didn't, but when my mom went to her room she found someone sleeping in her bed, and he was looking through her jeweler, and when my mom`` woke him up, and my mom said who are you, and he said i'm a stalker, and my mom said get out or im calling the police, and he gave her a note, and the note said will you marry me, and my mom gave him a note, and then the stalker opened the note, and the note said i will not marry you, and he said why, and my mom said i just met you, and you broke into my house, and i'mcalling the cops, and when my mom called the police he diapered.....

TO BE CONTINUED

Part 2

When my mom called the police the police said where is the stalker, and my mom said i don't know he was here, but then he disapered, and when the police left my mom sat on her bed she saw a note that said i'll come back for you when my mom read the note she started to buy sercurity cameras so when my mom looks at the sercurity cameras she will know that the stalker is here and then my mom could call the cops and he would go to jail, and when the stalker go's to jail the cops will eletercute the stalker, and he will be gone forever.

Part 3

When he was gone forever he became a ghost and we thouthgt he wasn't going to become a ghost but he became a ghost then the ghost stalker whispered in my ear and he said im coming for your mom and i said no your not and he said yes i am and i said no your not and he kept arguing with me and then he went to go find my mom and he could not find her any where and my mom picked me up and i asked her where are we going and she said miami and were going to live there to and i said cool i always wanted to go to miami

Written by jordyn j.

11/14/17