Hello, my name, is Peyton and I am 12 years old... I AM SURROUNDED BY BROTHERS! Yup boys always, sometimes I feel like a box with crazy eyeballs going around the box and a long tongue hanging out of my mouth (your imaging this right?) OK so this is my best friend Maddie she helps me calm down if she never existed I don't know how am I going to live without her, so let's start with my visit to Hawaii with my annoying brothers soo we were at inside the plane and my mom and dad sat at in front of me and my ANOYING BROTHERS ugh why did I needed to seat wit with this maniacs ,now let me tell you the annoying part of this whole chapter my little brother was crying and making drama then my mom gave him a lollipop so he can calm down he did but he did a big mess I got a towel and started cleaning his hand before he put all his sticky hands In my hair or my new perfect shirt he got really mad so he decided to spit on me that spit went directly to my face I got really mad and my big brother and little brother kept making fun of me. After a while my brother started snoring and putting his nasty breathe on my face my little brother went to sleep WAIT!! (if you see my little brother sleeping you're going to say he is an angel but when he wakes up he is a monster )so we got in Hawaii Ii was trying to push my big brother away and I couldn't because my brother was sleeping like a fat bear and so I jumped to the front seat and my parents went to wake my brothers up so we got to the beach house we were going to stay in I picked my bed and started unpacking and my mom got a really dumb idea and decided that we could go and swim with x-rays I was like NO NO NO NO NO !! she was like please you need to take care of your brother I was like fine mom just for you , so I went with my brothers while my mom and dad went to get snacks and they told me to get in the water with the x-rays I was LIKE NO I ONLY CAME TO WATCH MY BROTHER sorry but if you don't get in your brother can't get in so why brother gave me the puppy face so I couldn't resist so I Said FINE so I got in the x-rays were surrounding me I started to get goose bumps and started crying people starting staring at me and stopped crying and a while later I got used to it .but then we went back to the beach house then a week finished and we started packing up I was ready in the night we left and we got back to Florida my best friend texted me and she said if everything was great at Hawaii I replied (quiet fun) I just said I gtg I need to sleep for tomorrow byeee . THE END!!!!!! Hope you like this short story and always remember you don't need to hate people or your sibling they can be kind of awful and annoying but there still your sibling and you got to love them.
