The Ballerina Who Loved Cupcakes

Once upon a time there was a ballerina she was pretty, smart, she always wore this pretty pink dress with Rainbow dots. She loved that dress so much because she loved cupcakes that was her weakness. One day she decided to take a walk in the forest near her house the Forest was sunny and nice. When she was walking she started doing her routine she accidentally bumped into an older lady that she never seen before. The old lady was short, white hair, black dress with a hood. "I am so sorry" said the ballerina. "It's ok sweetie You know what your so sweet I am going to make you something sweet some day." So one day the old lady was watching the ballerina through the window. And saw the ballerina sneak into the dining room and get a bite out of one of the fresh cupcakes her mom made for her birthday and her mom said not to touch or eat them. So then the old lady found out the ballerina sweet weakness. So the old lady was actually a witch she made some cupcakes and put poison in them that would make her sleep for 30 years. So the next day the wicked old witch came to the ballerina's house. The witch knocked on the door and then gave the cupcakes to her. "Oh thank you so much" said the ballerina. The witch said "You're welcome" with a grin. The ballerina went inside and ate them all up. Later that day the ballerina felt really sleepy so she went to lay down and that's when the poison started to kick in. Then a little fairy saw the ballerina and made her wake up. When the ballerina woke up she said "oh thank you so much." "You welcome" said the fairy. Then the fairy made the witch disappear forever.
