

POOR DOG

By Landon S.

One day a boy named Aaron, for his whole life he wanted a dog. And every day when he goes by the pet store called Homes for Pets, he would look at this little cute puppy for hours and hours until the puppy fell asleep. So, what he did was he waited to save enough money to buy the dog. The dog was fifty dollars so when he had enough money to buy the dog he ran as fast as he could to the pet store. When he got there, he saw a sign that said we are closed for good. He fell in tears. So, he waited and waited for days. One day in the afternoon he sees a lady in a nice dress comes up to him and says to him "are you Aaron Fox?" and he said "yes" and just out of nowhere she gave the dog he wanted and she said, "keep him". Aaron and the pup named Rocky lived happy in Aaron's new house together. TO BE CONTINUED on how Aaron got a house.
