One day two super heros so named Max watched a movie with Dr. Culaso who turned into a rabbit by Max's dad. The thing is that Max wanted to be a villin like Dr. Culasoe. So after the movie Dr. Culasoe asked Max if he could make a machine that can turn Dr. Culasoe back into a human and Max said yes. So they went to Max's room so he can get started on it. Since his mom had a little time to spare she went to check up on Max while he had lunch break and he said that he was okay. Then she left. After she left Max went back to his room to finish the mashine. Then after dinner he zapped Dr. Culasoe. Since Max's parents are super heros thay saved the day. Dr. Colasoe got turned back into a rabbit and the machine was destroyed. Then Max learned not to be evil or bad plus he was grounded for three weeks.
