By Kenneth F., Jayden R. and Talon D.

This is how the superhero friends met. They were fighting the same crime and they didn't even know it until they saw each other face to face. Their names were Mr. Speed, Mr. Cool and The Hacker. Mr. Speed's powers are flight laser eyes and super speed. Mr. Cool's power is super speed flight ice power. The Hacker has fire and speed to hack the H.Q. for the world. One day there was a villain called The Darkest Storm and his power are lighting, storm, rain and darkness and light his is weakness.

ALERT! ALERT! ALERT! THE Darkest Storm has robbed a bank and he is still there, and we need The Hacker to go to the bank and hack the system so The Darkest Storm can't get in the vault where the money is.

Mr. Speed and Mr. Cool need to get to the bank quickly and go stop The Darkest Storm from robbing the bank.

THEN while the hacker was hacking, The Darkest Storm came behind him and knocked him out with a pan and had a bruise on his face. Then Mr. Cool froze the darkest storm on the wall, and he passed out inside the ice. Then Mr. Speed and Mr. Cool had to take the hacker to the hospital. After an hour the doctor came and said, "I'm sorry but The Hacker did not make it." Mr. Cool and Mr. Speed were very sad and crying. They thought about him every day. But one day The Hacker came alive as The Darkest Storm side kick.
