

A Christmas Tale By: Bryant H.

Our tale begins with a 10-year old boy named Johnny Werth, who didn't believe in christmas magic or Santa Claus at all. He was not a naughty kid just a challengend one.

Twass the night before christmas [christmas eve] and little Johnny was searching for the presents that he thought his parents hid for christmas. "I wonder what I am getting this year" He wondered aloud.He looked and looked but could not find any presents."Darn it!!"He whispered "I guess christmas is cancelled, I mean it's not like Santa Claus is going to deliver presents" Johnny said as he walked down the stairs. "HE IS!!!" Johnny's little 5-year old sister,Carol, screamed."Santa isn't real" said

"IS TOO!"

"Is not"

"IS TOO!!"

"IS NOT"

"KIDS! Time to go to bed!" Mom called from her room. "How about this" Johnny proposed. "We camp by the christmas tree and wait for Santa to come. If he doesn't come he is not real" Carol was silent for a few seconds."Sure" she agreed. A few minutes later they were falling asleep. Johnny closed his eyes and found himself wondering if Santa was real or not.

Johnny awoke and found himself sitting in ...snow!? He stood up and looked around. There was a city to his left. Maybe, Johnny thought, this is the North Pole. He walked through the snow until he was in the city. Johnny saw thousands of pointy-eared people. He walked up to one and said "what are you?" The other guy studied Johnny's face." I am an Elf.My name is Noel.Are you a human?" The Elf asked."um,yes" Johnny replied."I woke up here. Do you know how to get me home?". "No but I know someone who does" Noel said and started walking towards a gate at the other side of the town."C'mon" He said as he walked.

A few minutes later they were both at the gate. "don't we need a key?" Johnny asked. "Nope!" said the Elf cheerfully. Noel climbed up the gate then jumped off the other side. Johnny did the same. On this side there was two buildings and a shed. "One building is Santa's workshop were the other Elves work. The other is Santa's home. And the shed is were the reindeer sleep and the sleigh is stored." Noel explained." We need to see if Santa is still here". Noel and Johnny ran to the first building. Noel walked up to the door. A security camera came out of the wall and said "RETINA SCAN NEEDED TO ENTER". The camera went closer to Noel and scanned his eye. This is a really weird night, Johnny thought.

“RETINA SCAN DENIED” the machine said. A few candy canes came out of the wall. PEW PEW!!The candy canes were shooting hard peppermints !”OW!!OW!!OW!!” Johnny screamed.Suddenly the shooting stopped. The door opened. Mrs.Claus appeared at the doorway.” Santy already left” She said in a sweet voice.”C’mom”Noel said. They ran to the shed.A red-nose reindeer was still there.”Let’s ride Rudolph”said Noel. They both climbed on the reindeer.Rudolph flew out of the shed into the sky. A sleigh was visible out in front of them. And Johnny was pretty sure he heard a “Hohoho!!”.

”Sandy Claws” Noel growled .Suddenly Noel turned into a giant bunny and hopped onto Santa’s sleigh.” What the...?”said Johnny.”Ahh!”Santa yelled. Noel the bunny was pushing Santa off the sleigh!!

Johnny stood on Rudolph. He was Santa’s last hope. He jumped on the sleigh and grabbed the bunny and pulled him off the sleigh,but in the process fell off too. Johnny saw a purple portal-and fell right through it. Johnny opened his eyes and saw a huge bunny and smaller bunnies.” Good try Hopper”the big bunny said to Noel.”Hopper, if you kidnapped Sandy we could have taken over Christmas”.The he looked at Johnny and said “Oh, I’m the Easter Bunny but you can call me Easter”. Johnny had a mischievous plan forming in his mind. The eggs!!Johnny thought. They were how Noel-Hopper had teleported."Hey" Johnny said deeply."Can I see an egg?". "Sure" Easter said. Johnny picked up an egg and threw it at Hopper."HEY!!" Hopper shouted. A portal appeared in front of Hopper's face. Johnny jumped threw it and...

Was in Santa's sleigh."Santa!You are...real!The Easter bunny was trying to takeover Christmas.All of this,REAL !!Rudolph, Elves , YOU". Johnny exclaimed ."Well yes," Santa started"You just never believed but your sister, she believes in me a little too much" He chuckled" Well we are almost to your house so...".The reindeer slowed down and landed on Johnny's house. Santa grabbed a big bag and jumped in the chimney. Johnny did the same. "Bye" Santa said as he put the presents by the tree.

The next morning Johnny and Carol got everything they wanted.Johnny always believed in Santa.
