

The return of The Dragon

One day on July 08 on earth, Sarah opened the front door with her dog and went outside. When she got outside, she screamed because there was a “Dragon” outside on her front yard. It wasn’t just a dragon, it was a “Three Headed Dragon”! Sarah was so scared, she gave the dragon some dog food because she had a dog. So she kept the dragon for one week. At the end of the week, Sarah thought, it’s about time to give the dragon a name. At first, Sarah couldn’t think of any names, but the only name she thought of was “Zach”. So Sarah named him Zach. At first, the dragon (Zach) didn’t know who Sarah was talking to because the dragon just got a name. So Sarah kept him for a few more weeks. The dragon got the hang of the name. So whenever Sarah said “Zach”, Zach would come to Sarah. Zach was very good. So she kept him for 2 more weeks, but at the end of the second week, Zach was gone! Sarah and her dog looked everywhere in the front yard, back yard, and inside the house. They couldn't find Zach. Sarah cried for days because of Zach. Years past and she couldn't find Zach. But one day when Sarah was 40, she remembered that she had a dragon along time ago. She thought about trying to find her dragon. So Sarah and her dog went back to her old house and when she got there, there was her dragon she has been looking for 32 years. From there on, they lived in a happily family.
