

In Love With the Alpha~~~

By:Tessa G

Hi, my names Venelope, this is my story of my first time moving to Japan. " Ven!! Your friend is here!! " My mom calls out. I throw my socks on and scramble down stairs. " Hey Sherbert, you ready? " I ask. She glances at me with her bread in her mouth, she mumbles, " Ya think? " She shoves a piece of toast in my mouth, " WHAT WAS THAT FOR! " I scream out, I run toward the bus stop. " Sherbert, why does school have to actually start on a Monday?! " I yell she stares at me like I'm dumb then finally speaks " Aren't you the cleverest girl in Tok High?! Its so obvious doesn't a week always start on a Monday?! " I felt so dumb right before

I could say something the bus came. " C'mon Ven! " Sherbert called. " Okay.... I have a bad feeling Sher.... " I assume, " I'm afraid. " I step onto the bus and sit with Sherbert and think, " Is Sherbert a . fake friend .?" As I step out the bus with her I pass by the so called

. Alpha . and get nervous and I realize his aura is so dark. He glances at me. I stutter, " H-h-h-hi " He gives me a smirk

" Nice to meet you, I'm Carter. " He greets me, " I'm the Alpha. Are you a wolf too? " He asks. I think for minute and see everyone except a few others and I without wolf ears looking behind us, " No..... I'm pure out human sir Carter " I say being pure straight honest. " Wow an honest one. I'll tell you now you can't trust anyone here but the wolf pack, come by anytime if you need any help, before you end up in a locker. "

I get one more good glance at Carter before I walk into the school, I stutter, "S-s-s-s-Sherbert? I-I-I-I'm a bit scared," She looks at me and says, "It's ok, I'm with you Ven. Don't be scared, "I've been friends with Sherbert for about 10 years now, so I trust her with all my heart at the moment. We split as the bell rings in our ear drums deafening us.

"Good morning class, my names Ms. Allen your reading teacher this year. "She announces, "Please take a seat, and take out your notebook. "Carter walks into the room looking like he murdered someone he gives Ms. Allen a dead stare giving an excuse, "Ma'am I'm so sorry someone got hurt, as I take role for the Alpha I have to take care of my pack. "In a blink of an eye he acts romantic. "Only this Time, next time straight to detention, understand?" Ms. Allen declared as she gave the classroom a deadly stare.

"That's the bell, please leave instantly. "We all walk out. As I walk toward my locker I hear someone behind me and think, "Oh, its probably Sherbert, "But then, I see her walking with her books toward me. People stare at me looking scared, the truth is I wasn't really scared until I got to the locker room, I turn around to a girl staring at me, "He's mine. Don't touch him or I will kill you, "She walks up to him and gives him a hug. I stand still frozen while Sherbert drags me into the girls locker room.

"Are you crazy!? "She yells at me, "Do you know who that is!? It's the future wife of the alpha! "I forgot at the moment I was the only one who knew his name, " You mean Carter? " She looked at me crazy and yelled, " YOU KNOW THE ALPHA'S NAME!? " Everyone was staring at us, but they acted like it was nothing. " Yeah, why? " I whisper " Only the wolf pack is supposed to know the alpha's name Venelope. " She gave me a deadly stare, " What did you do? " She asked, " I wanna know. " . I explain to her I only greeted him literally that's what happened. " He might have interest in you! " She thought " You sure? I don't think anyones gonna like this dry faced wrinkled lookin' person. I commit things ordinary, nothing else! " I declare. " SIT DOWN AND TELL ME YOUR CHILD HOOD JUICE! " Sherbert declared. Wow I never knew she could snap, " Now that you say it, I don't remember my childhood... " She makes that face again like she's looking into my soul.

She looks around us then finally whispers, " Wow, that's all I get from you? Spill the tea from elementary school then, " She gives me a new look, a curious look, " Well, I got bullied. Oh! " I remembered something, " A boy helped me when I got bullied, and so we became friends. " She looks flattened at me, " Wow, that's your childhood. Venelope, look, for a smart, clever, and beautiful girl like you, you have a boring life. Text me after school, ok?

AFTER SCHOOL

I bump into Carter before I text Sherbert, " Carter? Hey, why are you still here? " I looked directly in his eyes and I froze. I fell over and my eyes closed before I fainted, I heard him say something, " Oh no, she might turn. Someone help me get her to the nurse! " The moment I wake up I feel something. " Oh! Your awake, Carter could you you know. " " Yes Ma'am. Venelope You're a uhm, you're a were wolf. You don't know do you. "

" I know, I forgot I can't look into an alpha's eyes." I touch my ears and look at him, he's blushing,

" What? Is there something wrong? " I ask, " Honey, he thinks you look cute. " The nurse answered, " He obviously has a crush on you." I looked flattered,

" No I don't! D-don't believe her. " Awh, he stuttered, but then I realized I was blushing. I put my hand out, he put his on top of mine, I try to stay silent but while that happens I turned red, " You alright Ven? " He started to laugh, " Y-yes! Why? "

" Haha! Your red! Pure red! " He laughed, " H-hey! Well you're an idiot! " He kissed me. H-he just marked me. After I walked out I saw the girl outside staring at me she pulled my hair and slapped me. " MALK!!! " Carter yelled at her, " B-babel! I- I ca- " He kicked her, " Never talk to me, are you ok Ven? " She saw my mark when she looked at me,

" You marked her?! Over me!? " He gave me ANOTHER smooch.

" Awh well he's mine! " I tease her, the next day I see him outside my door, " Venelope Flease, will you be my girl friend? " I felt amazed, " YES!!! IF COURSE!!! " I hugged him. Once we announced that we were both alphas female and male alpha, well we got married and had children. This is my story about my life falling in love with the alpha, and I still am. ☺

Note: Crystal Allen I want you to know, we all support you and we are a no place for hate here we love you very much. ☺ You Make my day thank you! <3
