Will Calven get what he wants? One day Calven went to the store and he saw some amazing shoes on a table that he wants. The next day he went to his mom and asked her if she can buy him the shoes he wanted. She said she would get them if he was good. When he returned to school he was acting up again. He was shooting spitballs at his teacher, so she decides to call his mom and his mom was not happy. She said Calven Burton the 3rd come over here! I know I did not raise you like this! Say sorry to your teacher!!! He knew she was not happy. The next day he said sorry to his teacher and gave her an apple. He said that he was not getting the shoes he wanted any more as he walks away. When he got home his mom said Calven I know you are a good boy so I got you the shoes you wanted. He was so happy! When it was time for bed he would put them on and go to bed. The next day he went to school. His teacher said she like his new shoes and he says thank you.
