This is a story about a girl named Sharlet she was 10 years old. She lost her cat named Layla.

Every day she would pray for her cat to come back but her cat never came back. She would put cat food hoping but her cat never came back. One day her cat came back! Sharlet was so happy!

She always spent time with her cat. She loved her cat. She played with her every day and now they were very happy and together forever.
