

The Mock-Ness-Monster

By Jase W. and Jackson R.

This story is about Luke and Michael. Luke is a Mock-Ness-Monster, one of a kind. Michael is a pink Loch-Ness-Monster. Luke makes fun of Michael for being pink when girls are supposed to be pink. Luke mocks Michael by turning pink. They have known each other since Kindergarten, but now they are both in 3rd grade.

The first time Luke bullied Michael was in 1st grade when they were on the playground, and Michael's parents had just gotten divorced. Michael was talking to his sister and said he liked her being with him. After recess Luke said, "You love your sister," in a mean voice and walked away. Michael decided just to ignore the mean words.

Michael's sister used to stand up for him, but now she is in middle school and can't anymore. He also has a friend named Minieum. Minieum just runs away from Luke because he is scared Luke will start bullying him. Michael feels lonely and sad when Minieum runs away.

On the week before summer vacation the Mock-Ness-Monster, Luke, bullied Michael and turned pink. Then Luke couldn't turn back to his normal color. Luke went home worried.

At home he told his mom what happened. Then he ran to his room crying and rushing so his brother didn't see him.

The next day was the last day of school, so Luke was really worried. He asked his teacher how to turn back to normal. She said to try being nice and say "Sorry" to Michael. Luke tried being nice, and every time he was nice, Luke turned a little less pink. Then he said “Sorry” to Michael one more time, and he wasn’t pink anymore.

Then over time Luke and Michael became friends. Luke eventually started being nice to everybody. He was sharing with friends and not teasing anyone. Luke learned to treat others the way he would want to be treated.
