

Jack's Baseball Dream

By Victor

There was a boy name Jack. He lived in a barn with his parents. Jack liked to play baseball, so his parents had just enough money for Jack to be in a baseball team.

So, Jack's team was called The Roaring Tigers. Jack's team shirt number is 23. On the team, Jack made 3 friends, Zach, Luke, and Mark.

They had a coach that was special because every time they hit a homerun, he gave them $5. But in a baseball game Jack never got a homerun. But Zach, Luke, and Mark gets at least 1 homerun every time!

Then one day their coach told them there was going to be a big game. Jack practiced playing baseball with his friends all night.

That morning it was time for the big game. None of his team mates hit a homerun. So, it was all up to Jack. His team mates were cheering for him. If Jack hits a homerun his team wins and he gets a trophy and $200. The pitcher throws and Jack hits a homerun!

When Jack gets home he surprises his parents! Instead of living in a barn, they got a small house next to the barn. His parents now have enough food for themselves and Jack.
