IAN
A true story by Maggie A.

My name is Maggie A. Life was hard for me a couple weeks ago, but a tragic thing happened that changed my life. I grew up around the house with 3 of my brothers Zach, George & Ian. I am the baby in the family, but Ian was the youngest brother. Ian had a disability, where he could not walk or talk. He could move, but it was not always on purpose. He would hit people but not on purpose, and he could eat, but he had to through a tube. It was hard for me to understand. But when I finally understood, that was even harder. We used to have to go to Houston for his Doctors appointments, then we got a new doctor. We spent almost every second together, for except when I was at school. In July of 2018 George and Zach lost their Biological Dad. Sadness filled in the family. Then a couple weeks later Ian wasn't doing so well. We grew closer and closer to our family. Months came to weeks; weeks came to days. We lost him. To think my brothers just lost their dad, they just lost their brother also. His funeral was beautiful. It was superhero themed. To this day I miss my brother so so much! May he rest in peace. JUNE 13, 2002 -OCTOBER 2, 2018
