

3FIST by Aaron M.

Long ago in an old village there was a very sick and pregnant woman. All the people in the village tried to help her, and one day her husband led a huge crowd of people to find a mystical flower that would cure her. They finally found the flower at Misty Mountain, it looked strange and had three petals, red, blue, and orange. She felt better as soon as she received the mystical flower. Her first born son was named Jack. He had a strange glowing red symbol on his forehead in the shape of a fire ball. Her next son, Max also had symbol on his forehead but it was a in the shape of blue wave.

Finally the last son was named Alex and he too had a symbol on his forehead. It was an orange image of a man running in the wind. After a while their symbols moved to their hands. Their parents were very worried about them, so they took them to a wise old wizard who told them about a grand oracle. He said “One day three children will stand among all people. These children will have colorful symbols on their hands and when this happens they’ll have to go to The Dark Cave in the forbidden forest to start their training to become heroes. Therefore the children were taken to the forbidden forest. As soon as the children entered the forest, they ran to The Dark Cave.

As they entered the cave they were being watched by a man at the top of the cave. When the man saw their gems, he showed himself and said, “Welcome my students I’m Sensei Chen and I will train you”. Even though they were goofing around during the beginning, after some months of intense training they were taking it seriously. They all discovered their powers. Alex had the power of speed, Max had water power, and finally Jack had fire power. While they were training a large tsunami hit the earth which caused an earthquake in the underworld, the leader of the underworld awakened.

He sensed the presence of heroes that he thought he defeated centuries ago. “The master awoke the master awoke” called Sema to other monsters. Everyone came to see the newly awakened master “arggh what was that” said the master. “It was the 3fists”, said Sema. “I THOUGHT I DESTROYED THEM!!!” yelled the master. Back at the cave, Sensei Chen felt his brother, the evil master, yelling while he was meditating. He jumped up and told Jack, Max, and Alex their names. Alex was the Speedster, Max the Waterspiter, and the leader, Jack the Fireball, and gave them their battle suits. He told them to press their gems in order to transform. Meanwhile, the master sent one of his monsters to destroy the 3 fists. Sensei Chen pushed them out the door to fight. When they pressed their gems they had cool red, blue, and orange suits. They were fighting a water monster so Speedster ran around the monster to make him dizzy, Waterspiter gave a pressure blast to slam the monster into the building, and Jack took out his fire sword to slice him. When they came back they had a party. Meanwhile, in the underworld the master said “You won the battle but not the war”.
