

Geff

By Isaiah P.

There once was a boy named Geff. When he was 2 years old, his mom sold him for drugs to a mean family. His step dad beat him and his step mom sexually abused him. When he turned 14 years old, he tried fighting back. They would pistol whip him and sometimes starve him. For some months, he made a plan to run away. Finally, he decided to run away.

He had no place to go so he went to a nearby church. The pastor was working late when he saw Geff and invited him in. Geff told the pastor his life story and the pastor prayed for him. Then Geff got an idea. His idea was that the pastor should keep him as a son.

The only thing the pastor said was, "Do you like meatloaf?" Geff was confused.

Then the pastor said, "My wife, your new mom, makes good meatloaf."

Geff's face lit up. He had a smile from ear to ear and went and gave the pastor a big hug and said, "I love you Dad."

They went home and Geff had the best meatloaf he ever tasted.
