

Pete the Dragon By Brayden L.

Once upon a time there was a dragon called Pete. He was sad talking about his parents because his parents died when he was a baby. How did they die? His parents went on a mission called Dragons vs. Vikings. Sadly the dragons lost. How did they lose? The Vikings used cannon balls to shoot them down. "Boom" the results were too graphic to show. Any who that was 1,000 years ago.

Pete still had family like his cousins, grandparents, and his aunt and they were best buds. The funeral was one week later. Pete was stressed out but he had to deal with it. He dressed up in all black. Seeing his parents at the funeral, he burst into tears. Then he was chosen to do a speech. He was nervous and confused but he had to do the speech. This is what he said "I know that we all miss them so let's pray all my dragon friends, amen."

Three weeks later it was Pete's birthday. It was a happy day but the only thing that's missing is his parents. So he visited the graveyard. He brought flowers to the dead infested place. He got grossed out. Then his parents came out of the grave. They said "Happy Birthday, we miss you." He said "I miss you too Mom and Dad." Soon his parents went to heaven that very night. Pete prayed to Mom and Dad.
