

My Friendenemy

by Lily C.

Once upon a time there was two girls, one named Lily and the other named Cierra. They were best friends for years except for one time during recess, Cierra saw Lily playing with another girl named Isabela. Once Cierra saw us two playing together she got really mad. As soon as we got inside Cierra came up to my desk and she yelled “We are not friends anymore!” Once she had said that, I got scared and confused because I didn’t know what I did wrong. The next day I tried talking to Cierra and asking her what I did wrong. A few minutes later Cierra finally told me what I did wrong. I tried making it up to her but it didn’t work. A week later Cierra and I finally became friends because Isabela told her that I would never try to hurt her feelings. But then Cierra and I asked Isabela if she wanted to be friends with us and then she said yes. Cierra, Lily and Isabella were best friends until the end of the world.
