Once upon a time, there was a 15 year old dragon. The dragon's parents were on a business trip for a year. He was very not happy and didn't know how to cook. He would of went outside to get vegetables and fruits in the garden. He didn't because it was very cold outside. Then he thought that he did not have to cook and have company at the palace.

He wanted to find gold because the dragon wanted to impress the king and queen of dragons also they like gold. But the gold was on the other side of the dangerous forest! And you cannot fly over forest because there are flying dangerous creatures.

He went to town to look for gold. He looked and looked for gold until found some in a shop, but he had to give money to the owner. He did not have any money! So he was very sad. But then he noticed that his very own scales can change colors! When he is sad he does not look at himself. When he is like that he changes color to dark. He thought that might impress the king and queen of dragons. He went and showed his color changing scales to the queen and king, and even more exciting the queen of the dragons asked him to stay at the palace.

Of course he said "yes"!

During the time at the castle he ate a lot and played a lot. Then one day the ravel dragons came and attack the town! The king ordered the dragons to fight. That's how World War III became! They fought for hours until they won the war. It was a great victory!

But the dragon's parents were coming and he wanted to get them something. He looked and looked. There was nothing special enough to give. Then he was out of time. So he had no gift to give them. He told them that he wanted to get them a gift. They said: "the best gift in the whole wide world is you being here right now!" And they lived happily ever after.
