Rebecca Is Moving Schools and Makes a New Friend

There was a girl named Rebecca. She was ten years old and she lived in Germany. Rebecca was in this elementary school called “Albert elementary school”. It was a big school she loved taking classes there. She loved going to writing classes she thought it was really fun. Then one day her parents told her that they had to work at a far job. So they took Rebecca to go live with her grandparents. She was sad to leave her school. Then she went, when she got there her parents told her that she’s going to a new school called “Jet elementary school”. She was very nervous than her parents left. She went to bed when it got dark her grandparents woke her up. she got dressed then her grandparents took her to her new school. she was nervous to go inside her class room. The teacher introduce her to the whole class. Rebecca said “hi” to the whole class no one answered her. She was sad she did not make any friends at her new school. She did not really like her new school. She missed her old school. No one would talk to her or play with her. Then one day one girl walked up to Rebecca. She was nice the girl’s name was Annie. She lived in Germany to, and her age was ten to. She loved writing too. Rebecca was happy to have a friend that is a like to her. They were great friends. now Rebecca has someone to play with and to talk with it was great for her. She was so excited to have Annie as her best friend how she forgot all about her old school she had lots of fun in her old school. Now she loved her new school it was the best. The End
