

Stacy and her Dogs

by Chloe J.

One day Stacy had an idea. She could start to rescue dogs. Stacy was a very nice girl who absolutely loved dogs, and still does. So she got her backpack and put in her supplies because she knew she would be away for a while. Her friend Madiline said that she could take care of her two cats, Milktoast and Pipsqueak. Then she set off to the forest to find dogs.

Soon she came across a lake wolf. Luckily she brought cake bones so she tamed her and named her Velvet. She knew that her dogs would follow her, so there was no need for a leash. She found a jungle and inside of the jungle she found a melon wolf, an ocelot wolf, and a cookie wolf. She tamed each one with a special bone for each one. Soon she found an ice wolf in an ice spikes area. She gathered ice and made ice bone. She tamed the wolf.

Now that she had five dogs, she decided to bring them home, but then she saw the rarest wolf of all, the emerald wolf. But she had only brought one emerald bone. She decided to give it to him. She tamed him. He was one of the many wolves to come home with her. She found many more as she went home.
