By: Connor B & Tripp C

Moving In

Connor And Tripp are both sixteen years old. We are moving into a cabin in the forest. It took us four hours to drive there. Now we are going to bed “good night” Connor said. We are on a king sized bed and heard a fragment noise of paper. We took the paper out from beneath the pillow and put it on the writing desk and went to sleep. When we woke up we observed it carefully and discovered it was a treasure map. So we followed the map into the frigid misty forest. It started to rain so we went inside to grab are jackets and rain boots.

The Blue Moon

Then it started thundering so we sat there for two hours. While we were waiting we looked at the treasure map for secrets things. So when it stopped raining we went outside. We stepped in the damp mud and followed the trail. There was a hole, we tried to jump over the hole but we fell in. “Are we going to drown in here?” Tripp questioned.

“I hope not, but we might drown if the rain, rains for 10 more minutes.” Connor spoke.

“Hey look Tripp, there is a vine.” “Let’s go”, bust out Tripp.

So they grabbed the vine then it stopped and it started raining hard and fast. BOOM!!!!!! “That was thunder” Connor said then are eyes had salty tears then a dirt hallway appeared the mist covered it the hallway disappeared the water rose up for feet if the water rises up one more foot we will drown. Then a rope ladder appeared “Tripp go up first.” Connor said “OK” Tripp said, Tripp went up the ladder “hold it Tripp”, connor said. There was a creaking noise “watch out” yelled Tripp. Then Connor got pushed back into the hole then the tree fell on Tripp. Connor climbed up the ladder and pushed the tree over then got Tripp out and slept in the forest together.

Time Travel

When Connor woke up Connor YELLED!!!!!! “Tripp Tripp are you ok, say something!” Tripp’s eyes opened Tripp said “something.” Connor said, “We both started giggling we fell on are backs we could not sit up. When we stopped we realized the hole disappeared. We started walking and found a chest in the middle of the path we opened it and found a riddle in said.

Go to a cliff, look for wood planks for what seems to be a ray.

Careful where you step the ground might be fake so were you step look for a red ribbon then stop.

We looked for a mountain and went to the cliff of it. There was bridge and we went on the bridge it looked like was a 100 ft drop. All of a sudden CRACK the wood on one plank fell while Connor was on it quickly Tripp grabbed Connor. "Thanks" Connor gasped. "Your Welcome." Tripp smiled. "Why are you smiling" Connor said anxiously "because we are not dead yet. "Well let's keep on going shall we" Connor yelled quietly "yes we shall" Tripp said annoyingly. Then "I've got you" YELD Tripp CREEK! SNAP!

Then all went DARK.....

"Where are we" Tripp echoed "in the middle of nowhere except maybe in a cave, canyon, and also valley." Connor also echoed. "It's cold out" shuttered Tripp BOOM!!!!!!

"What is that" they both cried out loud the thing looked like an arch with a rectangle at the bottom the middle turned blue with light blue sound wave looking things in the middle. "Well should we go in?" Connor asked "don't see why not" Tripp said sassily. Connor leaned closer and the SLAP Connor zoomed face first into the thing and boom he was gone. Tripp looked behind himself and slap he went face forwards too. They stood up and looked around. Poof a man appeared and disappeared and reappeared behind a bush and crept "should we follow him" whispered Connor "yes" whispered Tripp.

The man and the military base

While we followed him there was a chest with tons of diamonds we picked it up BOOM!!!!!!

Well we followed him and it led us to a secret military place in jail. I guess the spy knocked us out. Just then a guy was going to walk passed with keys. Tripp said "he's going to walk pass again and I'm going to say can you tell us why we are in jail." In front of the jail he comes over we grab his uniform pick him up and bang him on the bars and we get the keys. Tripp says exactly what he said he would. Tripp took the guys clothes then another military soldier comes and yelled "stop right there." Connor went and made him faint just like the other one and Connor took his clothes too.

They both went to the captain of the secret military base. Connor spoke like if he were a member of his troop. "Where did you put the tons of diamond of these two boys" the captain said "in the military base right on the left of where the two boys are." Connor said "yes sir, yes sir." and we left. When we got there we opened the door and saw the bag of diamonds. We saw the time traveler thing we saw a sign it said. "1925" that was 100 days before our time. The time traveler has grown and I saw a truck. We put the bag of diamond on the back we used the keys turned it on and went into the traveler and we were at our house. The time traveler disappeared, our mom ran out "are you alright I was so worried you should have told me you were leaving." Then we went to bed.
