

Skylar and the Country Miracle

By Connor S & Mia L

One day there was a girl, named Skylar, She has a disease called Femoral Neuropathy, a disease where your legs tend not to work. So Skylar can not walk and has to be in a wheelchair. Sklar has a dream to be a horseback rider. Skylar at school is like a pumpkin smashed by a hammer. The pumpkin is Skylar and the hammer is the bullies named Rebecca, Ally and Sarah.

The only thing is Skylar's disease get in the way of her dream to horseback ride. The nerve in her leg never worked as good as it should have. There is nothing she could do about it.

The next day, she tried to walk but it was no use. She tried every day, but on day.....

Miracle just happened right in front of Skylar's eyes.....She could stand up. She tried walking and she could. She tried running and she could. She even tried jumping and she could. She ran to her mom. Mom said "Why are you not in your wheelchair and ---and how can you run!" "IT'S A MIRACLE!" Skylar screamed out loud.

Skylar was so happy that she was going to stand up to bullies and show them who's boss. That next morning she got up and made sure she didn't have a dream about her being able to stand, walk, run, and jump. She could, so she was ready to stand up to the bullies. All she needed was a smart mind and a kind heart and she had both. So she got ready for school brushed her teeth, hair, and ate breakfast then went to school. She was determined to stand up the bullie. It was recess time and the bullies walked past her and Skylar ran to go get Ally, Sarah , and Rebecca. The bullies turned around and said "Oh my gosh!" "Where is your wheelchair?" "at home: skylar said. The bullies said to Skylar "want to be friends" Skylar said "no, I'm not going to be friends with BULLIES!" the bullies were only bullying poor Skylar because she was in a wheelchair.
